PRESENTING

THE 1960 TORCH

MOUNT BERRY SCHOOL FOR BOYS

MOUNT BERRY, GEORGIA

FOREWORD

The sound of happy voices, the spirit of good sports, the molding of ideals and aspirations — all blend into our high school experiences.

With the sincere hope of bringing a worthy souvenir of significant days at the Mount Berry School for Boys to its many loyal students, the Staff has devoted many hours of work.

We feel that your satisfaction with this volume is our compensation and with this thought the Staff presents to you the 1960 TORCH.

DEDICATION

To our truest friend, we give our thanks. We took our troubles to you at every turn along the paths of learning, and without your understanding, we would have been lost. You rejoiced with us when we were triumphant, and you gave us courage when we were disappointed. We cannot thank you enough, but a friend lives forever in our hearts.

The Class of 1960 dedicates this TORCH to you, Mr. Thompson, our loyal friend.

MISS MARTHA BERRY

Founder of the Berry Schools, 1902

THE SUNDAY LADY OF POSSUM TROT

Some of the luckiest kids in the country go to school near Rome, Georgia. A short way north of town is a green hedge with wide gates. A road leads through pastures, fields, and forests, and above these are spires. This is all part of the campus of the Berry Schools.

Back in 1902, when Miss Martha Berry founded her school, she saw the mountain boys and girls grow up in ignorance and poverty. She saw that the limited life of these people was a burden to themselves and a loss to the nation. And so for forty years, from girlhood until her death, she gave them her money, her land, her devotion, and her time.

Miss Berry, the daughter of a well-to-do planter, inherited the land that is now the site of the Berry Schools. Through the years she added to her inheritance, till today the Berry Schools stand on perhaps the most beautiful campus in America: 30,000 acres of field and forest, the oaks massive, the pines tall, the lakes silver. The original log cabins in which she began are still there, dwarfed now by great Gothic buildings whose spires probe the sky.

Martha Berry was just a girl when, playing a melodeon one Sunday afternoon, she saw some ragged mountain children outside the window listening. She invited them in. She asked if they had been to Sunday school. They didn't know what she was talking about. So she told them Bible stories and played for them and sang.

Next Sunday they were back, bringing friends from over the countryside, from Possum Trot and Horseleg Mountain, from Foster's Bend and Trapp's Hollow. None had ever touched a book or knew what a pencil meant. Soon her "class" was so big that Miss Berry moved it to a country church at Possum Trot. To this day the mountain people refer to her as "the Sunday Lady of Possum Trot." No subsequent honor meant so much to her as this name.

Many of the children's parents could not write or read. Martha Berry decided that a Sunday school was not enough, that book learning must be added to worship.

She built a little whitewashed school across the road from the plantation. The first day 12 boys sat on the benches. Others from back in the hills, shy as young deer, hid in the fringe of the clearing, poised to race away. She pretended not to see them and they lost their fear, sidling in on bare feet.

But before long it was clear that day schools were not the answer. There was always something to keep the children at home: corn to hoe, hogs to butcher, cotton to pick. Miss Berry decided that the only solution was a boarding school — where the pupils could work for their keep. One day Miss Berry went out into Rome and deeded her property, in perpetuity, to a school for mountain boys and girls. Her lawyer argued but she hushed him. "I shall raise a crop better than the land is producing now," she said.

In January, 1902, with a small dormitory near the whitewashed schoolhouse, she opened the Mount Berry School for Boys, with five pupils.

In 1909, the boys swung their axes and laid the logs for a girl's school. Down from the hills came their sisters, bringing the pledge of a new life in the Blue Ridge Mountains of Georgia, the Cumberlands of Tennessee, the Great Smokies in North Carolina, and the craggy heights of Sand Mountain in Alabama. Today, in the school's 100 buildings, there is a high school for boys, the Mount Berry School for Boys, and a coed college, the Berry College.

Although Miss Martha Berry died in 1942, there still is the same wise balance between poetry and plowing at the Berry Schools. There is laughter on the campus and, come dance nights, the boys and girls skip away. It's a good life they live and it's good training they get: to acquire knowledge and skill and the will to work.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The 1960 TORCH records for each of us many events meaningful in our lives together this year at Berry. I am sure that we will have many opportunities throughout the years ahead to refer to the pictures and events herein recorded. I am equally sure that most of the moments about which we will be reminded are bright ones.

We hold as important several elements which give Berry its distinctiveness.

- Emphasis on the development of Christian character.
- Effort toward an academic program of superior quality.
- Emphasis upon the importance of work well done.
- Stress on simplicity of living and beauty in everyday life.
- Dedication to an ideal of service symbolized in our motto, "Not to be ministered unto, but to minister."

It has been for me a great experience to be associated with you young men of the Mount Berry School for Boys. My thoughts and prayers will be with you as you leave Berry better prepared for lives of service.

JOHN R. BERTRAND
President

Mr. Fred H. Loveday

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

The present is but the meeting point of the past and the future. As we travel through time, the things which we honor and respect and the things for which we are honored and respected determine the direction of our travel.

It has been the constant effort of your school to help you to build strongly in character, in mind, and in the spirit. Herein can a healthy young man who has a genuine concern for humanity attain his best. The world is in great need of men who will dare to do their best; it needs men who have the wisdom and the vision to choose things of lasting value rather than fleeting amusements, dedicated service rather than selfish gain, tolerance and understanding rather than prejudice, knowledge rather than ignorance, and sincere goodness rather than a mere veneer of respectability. Humanity needs good leaders; our nation needs strong and alert citizens; and the kingdom of God needs sincere Christians.

Young men, you can meet these needs and demands! Face the future with a great courage, with an undaunted spirit, and with an undying faith. If you should achieve great success, Berry will be proud of you. If you do not, Berry will still claim you as her own.

Remember, the present is virtually non-existent and your future is rapidly becoming your past. This never-ending process of life attains its fullest meaning whenever we can say with the Apostle Paul, "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the Faith."

IN MEMORIAM

PSALM 121
The great safety of the godly, who put their trust in God's protection.
A Song of degrees.

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help.

My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth.

He will not suffer thy foot to be moved; he that keepeth thee will not slumber.

Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep.

The Lord is thy keeper: the Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand.

The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night.

The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul.

The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore.

SPECIAL EVENTS

CANDLE LIGHT SERVICE

THE CANDLELIGHT SERVICE is held just before Christmas holidays each year, when everyone is in a festive mood. Music furnished by the choir and soloists, scenes by the students, and its procession of students and visitors carrying lighted candles makes it one of the most beautiful events of the year.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

"Smelly" on his way —

One of the highlights of the year is the JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM. Many weeks of planning goes into this project.

This year's Junior-Senior Prom had a French motif. The Recitation Hall was decorated as the inside and the outside of a French cafe, complete with French chefs and a canopied bandstand.

It was one of the most enjoyable parties ever held at the Mount Berry School for Boys.

Dickey,

Best of every thing in life to you. You are one of the finest boys I know. I have enjoyed very much being your roommate. I don't know of anyone else that I would rather room with. I hope that I have been as good of a roommate to you as you have been to me. After we part from this wonderful school, I hope that somewhere down life's road that we can meet again. You Dickey, are about the nicest friend that I have ever [redacted]. I want you to know that you have been like a brother to me and I wish you all the luck in the world on everything especially [redacted], and all of this I say to a True friend.

Your friend always, and your old Lady,
David
Sharp

Have enjoyed having you in the dorm and in English. Best of wishes for the future.

Jim Gargis

Best of luck to a fine neighbor, it's been nice having you as a friend this year. a friend always Warren Martin

Dickey,
best of luck
to you always your friend
Ed Nichols

Dickey,
I wish for you the best of luck here at Berry and anywhere else you maybe. Work hard as usual and I am sure you will have luck. I've enjoyed going to school this year and living in the same dorm. your friend,
Everett Solomon

"Dickie",
I have enjoyed knowing you this year and working in the "Gradebarn" with you last semester. Here's hoping I don't ever work over there again!

A fellow pal,
Billy Smith

NOTE OF THANKS

In order to send a yearbook to the press, one needs not only time and patience, but also the cooperation of all the students and faculty. Without that cooperation there would be no annual. Sending a yearbook to the press is the result of no one man's efforts, but the efforts of all. Therefore, the staff of the 1960 TORCH would like to thank the faculty and the student body for helping to make this publication possible. We would especially like to thank Carl Jarrard for his nice work in the advertisement section.

Dear Dickie,

Though at times you seem so hateful, I still love you. All the things we have ever done together, especially the fights and squabbles, are all in the past, but I still remember. This year when you came home from Berry I was actually glad when I saw you walk through the door. You have been a wonderful brother. You are nice and considerate. I hope you will always be just as you are now. If you stay the way you are, now you will have something accomplished in life. I hope you will always get everything you need and all the luck in the world. I hope you won't forget anyone who has ever done anything or given you anything in life. May you always have all the luck and stay the same you are now.

Best Wishes,
Your loving sister
